

AMENDMENT

Please note that your Employment Agreement is hereby amended by the attached Flexible Benefits Scheme.

In the event of any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Employment Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Flexible Benefits Scheme, the terms and conditions of the latter shall take precedence.

Please indicate your acceptance of the above by signing and dating this Amendment below.

CACI LIMITED

By

C.T. McCarroll

Name C.T. McCarroll

Date

29.09.00

EMPLOYEE

By

Arun Singh

Name

Arun Singh

Date

31/10/2000

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

(1) CACI LIMITED of CACI House, Kensington Village, Avonmore Road, London W14 8TS
("CACI")

and

(2) Ash Shafi

of 17 Argyle Road, West Ealing, London W13 0LW

("Employee")

WHEREBY IT IS AGREED that:

1. CACI will employ the Employee who will serve the Company in the Position and be based at the Office referred to in the Schedule: the employment shall begin on the Commencement Date as set out below and be subject to the attached terms and conditions.
2. The Employee's initial salary will be the annual amount shown in the Schedule, as amended from time to time ("Basic Salary") and the Employee will be entitled to the other benefits as set out or referred to in the said terms and conditions.
3. Either party may terminate the employment at any time by not less than four weeks' working notice in writing to the other (or the Statutory Notice Period if greater) unless previously terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions. For the avoidance of doubt, the Employee shall not take any holiday (other than Bank or Public Holidays) during the notice period, without CACI's express consent and should such consent be granted, CACI, at its sole discretion, may require the Employee to work an additional day at the end of the notice period in respect of each day taken as holiday in the course of the notice period. During the Probationary Period (if any) referred to in the Schedule, the period of notice shall be one working week.
4. The Employee confirms that he/she is free to enter into this Agreement and is not thereby in breach of any contract or understanding with any other person which would restrict or prevent the performance of his/her duties hereunder.
5. The Employee will be provided with a Company car (or cash option) in accordance with CACI's Car Policy currently on the scale indicated in the Schedule and subject to the annexed special conditions.

THE SCHEDULE

Position:	Principal Consultant
Office:	IMS, Coventry
Commencement Date:	03 October 2000
Annual Salary:	£48,500
Probation Period:	Nil
Company Car:	In accordance with current Car Policy

Initials: Carm / As
CACI / Employee

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Place and Time of Work

- (a) The Employee will be based at the designated Office but CACI may require him/her to work at other locations in the United Kingdom including those of its clients on a temporary or permanent basis.
- (b) CACI's normal office hours are Monday to Friday 0930 to 1730. Where the Employee works on a project at a client's premises, the client's office hours will apply.
- (c) The Employee is required to work such additional hours as are reasonably necessary to ensure the proper performance of his/her duties and any time spent on CACI's business in excess of the above periods will be deemed to be part of the Employee's duty to serve the Company's best interests. The Employee shall not be entitled to receive any additional remuneration in respect of hours worked in excess of normal office hours.

2. Duties

- (a) The Employee is required to devote his/her full time attention and abilities to his/her duties during working hours and to act in the best interests of CACI at all times.
- (b) The Employee will obey the reasonable instructions of his/her superior manager to carry out his/her work in accordance with CACI policies from time to time in force.
- (c) The Employee will not in any way engage or be concerned in any business or undertaking, whether for financial gain or otherwise where this is in conflict with the interests of CACI.
- (d) CACI may vary the Employee's position and/or duties from time to time in accordance with its business needs, provided that such new position/duties are reasonably commensurate with the Employee's status, capabilities and skills.

3. Benefits

- (a) Salary - The Employee's salary is payable monthly in arrears at the end of each month and is subject to any deductions required by law.
- (b) Pension Scheme - Please refer to the terms of CACI's Flexible Benefits Scheme.

Membership of the Scheme is subject to the rules from time to time in force and a copy of the current rules is available on request from the scheme administrator.
- (c) Medical Insurance - CACI pays for private medical insurance for the Employee who may at his/her own expense obtain additional cover for any dependants.

Initials: cm / as
CACI / Employee

- (d) Sickness and Disability Insurance - CACI will insure the Employee against sickness or disability preventing performance of his/her duties for periods in excess of 90 consecutive days. The policy provides for the Employee to receive a maximum of two-thirds of his/her basic salary for such excess periods until the first to occur of being fit to return to work, reaching 65, or death.

Any payment during the first 90 days of sickness or disability, other than the Statutory Sick Pay to which the Employee may be entitled, is at the discretion of CACI.

All payments during sickness or disability are subject to the production of medical certificates or other proof of continued incapacity (including medical examination) as CACI or its insurers may require, and to the deduction of any social security payments to which the Employee may be entitled. For Statutory Sick Pay purposes, the Employee's qualifying days shall be Monday to Friday. The period of 90 days is extended to 180 days for sickness or disability arising from pregnancy or childbirth and no payments will be made to an Employee infected with HIV or suffering from AIDs or an AIDs-related complex.

If the Employee is unable to perform his/her duties as a result of sickness or injury caused by a third party, all payments and benefits provided by CACI during such incapacity shall, to the extent that they are recoverable by the Employee from the third party, constitute loans from CACI to the Employee and be repaid to CACI when and to the extent that the Employee recovers compensation therefor from the third party.

- (e) Life Assurance - CACI will insure the Employee during the continuance of the Employment against the following risks:

- i. Death - an amount equal to Basic Salary for two years
- ii. Death or Dismemberment within 90 days after an accident - the maximum benefit payable in the event of death is an amount equal to Basic Salary for two years. This is additional to any amount payable under (i) above.
- iii. Death resulting from an accident while a passenger on a passenger service provided by a public carrier - an amount equal to Basic Salary for two years. This is additional to any amount payable under (i) and (ii) above. The Employee may nominate any person or persons to receive the Life Assurance benefits and a form is available for this purpose.

The benefits in respect of medical, sickness and disability, and life insurances are those payable under the terms of the policies from time to time in force and the insurers' decision will be conclusive on the amounts and duration of payments. Benefits are subject to the Employee being regarded as a normal risk by CACI's insurers and CACI may require a payment from the Employee towards any increased premium or may otherwise reduce the benefits payable. CACI reserves the right in its absolute discretion to alter the terms of the policies at any time.

Initials: Chm / as
CACI / Employee

- (f) Stock Purchase Scheme - CACI has a Stock Purchase Plan under which the Employee may be entitled to reimbursement or a proportion of the purchase price for the common stock of CACI International Inc. which he/she purchases on the open market.

4. Holidays and Vacation

- (a) The Employee shall be entitled to the following paid holidays and vacation which accrues on a pro rata basis in respect of each year of the Agreement from the Commencement Date and each anniversary thereof:
- i. All Bank and other Public Holidays, and
 - ii. 12 working days (minimum). Please refer to the terms of CACI's Flexible Benefits Scheme.
- (b) The Employee may:
- i. Take vacation at such times as are previously agreed with the Employee's superior manager.
 - ii. Be paid in lieu of taking vacation.
 - iii. Accrue vacation.
- (c) CACI reserves the right to stipulate up to three working days in each calendar year which the Employee must take as holiday.

5. Expenses

All expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the Employee on CACI's business will be reimbursed to the Employee in accordance with the current CACI Expenses Policy. All claims must be supported by details of their nature, amount and purpose and include receipts where appropriate.

6. Career Analysis

Formal career analysis will be held from time to time at the discretion of the Employee's superior manager, and at least once a year.

7. Copyrights and Patents

- (a) All property rights in respect of every invention, product, method, system, program or any other intellectual property created by the Employee or in the discovery or creation of which he/she participates during the continuance of his/her employment hereunder shall (subject to the provisions of the Patents Act 1977) belong to CACI including rights in any Moral Rights which are hereby assigned to CACI.

Initials: GM / as
CACI / Employee

- (b) The Employee shall forthwith advise CACI of any such intellectual property and at the request and expense of CACI he/she shall give and supply all such information, data and drawings as may be requisite to enable CACI to exploit any such to its best advantage and shall execute and do all such documents and things as may be necessary or desirable for obtaining patent or similar protection in such part or parts of the world as may be specified by CACI and for vesting the same in CACI or as it may direct, and in respect of any opposition proceedings or petitions or applications for revocation of the said patent or other similar protection. CACI shall have the right to work such invention as a secret process rather than register patent or other protection in respect thereof.

8. Confidentiality

- (a) The Employee shall not during or at any time after the cessation of his/her employment with CACI divulge to any third party, or make use of for his/her own benefit or purposes, or for the benefit or purpose of any other person, firm, corporation, company, association or business entity, any confidential information, trade secrets or private information of CACI or of its past, present or potential customers or suppliers including any proprietary systems or other information relating to existing and potential projects, methods, processes, products, systems, software programs, customer information, finances, business developments and/or marketing programmes and plans, all of which information shall be deemed confidential.
- (b) Upon cessation of the employment hereunder (or earlier if requested), the Employee shall return to CACI all records, documents and other property of CACI, its clients and prospective clients in his/her possession or under his/her control and without keeping copies. The copyright in all CACI records and documents shall belong to CACI at all times.

9. Post Cessation Restriction

- (a) The Employee will not for a period of 12 months after the end of the employment directly or indirectly work whether as an employee, freelancer or otherwise for any person, firm or company which has been a customer or client of CACI and with whom the Employee has worked, or with whom the Employee has had regular, or a series of, or substantial contacts on behalf of CACI at any time during his/her last year of service with CACI.
- (b) The Employee (or any company which he/she controls either directly or indirectly) will not for a period of 12 months after the end of the employment without the specific written approval of CACI, employ, or aid or encourage any third party to employ, whether as employee, agent or consultant, any "relevant employee" of CACI. For this purpose a "relevant employee" of CACI means any individual employed by or who acted as consultant for CACI at any time during the 12 month period immediately prior to that employee's employment by the Employee or other third party as aforesaid.
- (c) This clause is additional and without prejudice to any common law or statutory rights and to the generality of the preceding clause.

Initials: John / as
CACI / Employee

10. Data and the Data Protection Act

It is likely that the Employee will in the course of his/her duties have access to data belonging to CACI and/or its clients, including personal data within the meaning of the Data Protection Act. Any unauthorised access to, or disclosure of any such data by the Employee to any other employee or to anyone outside CACI who is not authorised to receive it shall be a serious offence and will make the Employee liable to disciplinary procedures.

11. Termination

- (a) CACI may at any time by notice in writing to the Employee terminate the employment immediately if the Employee shall have committed any serious breach or have repeated or have continued (after written warning) any material breach of his/her obligations or shall have been guilty of serious neglect or negligence in the performance of his/her duties or of conduct tending to bring CACI into disrepute.
- (b) CACI shall be entitled at its sole discretion to give the Employee pay in lieu of any unexpired period of notice terminating this Agreement or to require the Employee not to attend work or perform any duties during all or any part of such period.

12. Continuing Obligations

Any cessation of this Agreement (whether or not in breach of these terms) shall be without prejudice to the rights and remedies of either party in respect of any antecedent breach of any of the provisions hereof and to the continuing obligations of the parties under any provision expressed to have effect after the employment has ceased.

13. Grievances and Disciplinary Matters

It is CACI policy that any Employee who has a grievance relating to his employment should take this matter up with his or her superior manager. Copies of the CACI Grievance Procedure and the CACI Disciplinary Procedure are available upon request from the Employee's superior manager. These procedures do not form part of the contract of employment, but may be used as guidance by CACI.

14. Tax Consequences

Any benefits which are currently, or may in the future be offered to the Employee, may be subject to taxation which will be the responsibility of the Employee who is advised to seek independent advice upon possible implications in his/her case.

15. Overpayments

Any amounts paid to the Employee which are in excess of the amounts to which he/she was entitled shall be recoverable from the Employee by deduction from any amounts due. Termination of the Agreement by either party will not act as a waiver of CACI's right to recover such excess payments, and any overpayment or loan made to the Employee is payable in full on termination or upon earlier demand.

Initials: Cash / CS
CACI / Employee

16. Interpretation

The term "CACI" shall include CACI's Associated Companies which for this purpose shall mean any subsidiary (as defined by Section 736 of the Companies Act 1985) of CACI International Inc.

17. Variation

CACI reserves the right on giving reasonable notice to the Employee to alter or discontinue any of the benefits, holidays, etc., and/or to change or discontinue any of its policies, or to alter or vary any of the above terms to the extent which CACI considers necessary, but any such alteration or variation shall not affect any provision hereof required by law.

18. Severability

The provisions of the Agreement are severable and if any provision or identifiable part thereof would be invalid or unenforceable such deletions only as are necessary to ensure their validity or effectiveness shall be deemed to have been made to them.

19. Amendments

None of the provisions of the Agreement shall be waived, varied or supplemented in any way except in a written instrument signed by an authorised representative of CACI.

20. Governing Law

The Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England.

Initials: cm / cn
CACI / Employee

SPECIAL CONDITIONS

Company Car

If the Employee elects to be provided with a Company car in accordance with the Company Car Policy, then the following special conditions shall apply:

- (a) The Employee must ensure that the Company car allocated to him/her will only be used in accordance with CACI's current Car Policy and Car User Handbook and will take all reasonable care of the vehicle while in his/her possession and ensure that it is regularly serviced and all appropriate maintenance carried out when necessary.
- (b) The running, service, maintenance and insurance costs of the Company car will be the responsibility of CACI, save for those petrol/oil costs incurred in private mileage which will be the responsibility of the Employee.
- (c) The Employee warrants that he/she holds a valid driving licence and agrees to inform CACI immediately of any event which has given or is likely to give rise to a claim under CACI's insurance policy or which should be notified to the insurers, including the involvement of the Company car in any accident and/or the Employee being prosecuted for a road traffic offence and/or having his/her driving licence endorsed or being disqualified from driving. The Employee will, at CACI's request, return the car to CACI during any period of suspension or disqualification.
- (d) The Employee will reimburse CACI for any fines or penalties attaching to the Company car while it is in the Employee's possession.
- (e) The Employee will return the Company car to CACI in good condition when due for replacement/at the end of the employment.
- (f) For the purpose of this clause, the Employee shall be responsible for any act or default of any person authorised to drive the Company car at the Employee's request.

Dated this 29 day of September 2000.

Signed for and on behalf of
CACI LIMITED

Chris Carver

Signed by
THE EMPLOYEE

Armed Singh